A note from the pastor:

The closer we get to Christmas, the more we hear Scripture centered around Isaiah 9, Micah 5, and certainly Luke 2. However, passages from 1 John are not often used as normal Advent messages. Which means we need to take a much larger look at the Christ child whose birth we celebrate this time of year.

At the birth of a child, most, maybe all, the attention is on the baby. But what about the parents?! Loving God and loving Jesus Christ are actually saying one and the same thing. In addition, we have another Christmas message that is sometimes missed: Victory. But as we move through this world, do we feel victorious? Too many Christians would say "No." 1 John 5:1-5 reminds us that we have been born of God, and should be obeying God, resulting in victory over anything the world can throw at us. Through Christ we have conquered the world. This victory ultimately comes through faith in Jesus Christ. Have you experienced this victory?

If you want to get into a controversy over what a passage of Scripture is saying, 1 John 5:6-7 is one of those passages. Over the centuries, Augustine said the "water and the blood" are referring to the water and blood that came from Jesus' side when he was pierced while still on the cross. Calvin and Luther interpreted these as elements we have in the sacrament of Communion. Others say it takes us back to Jesus baptism and crucifixion. Regardless of which interpretation you gravitate toward, 1 John 5:6-9 points us to the truth that the birth we celebrate at Christmas unquestioningly is Christ, God among us. Have you felt his presence?

In 1 John 5:10-13, John had no problem stating with absolute language that every human life is on one side of Christ or the other. There is no gray area. The more we meet Christ as we read through the Gospels, the more we see how he demanded people to make a choice about him. You are either for him or against him. This is the baby in the manger. And the eternal life that we look forward to is only found in him. Are you willing to bet your life on it?

1 John 5:18-21 agrees with Romans 10:9 as it reminds us that all who declare Jesus is the Christ and believe he rose from the dead will be saved. If this is true of you, you are a child of God. As children of God, we have a certainty that: children of God do not continue living a life of sin, that we are protected (John 17:12, 15), and we are able to see the truth of God revealed through Christ. At Christmas we celebrate the birth of Jesus, but we can also celebrate our own birth into truth and life. Have you experienced the new birth found in Christ?

When we arrive at Matthew 1:21 Mary and Joseph have been engaged, only to find out that Mary is scandalously pregnant. What should Joseph do? Walk away or be drawn into this scandal? Along with Joseph, we find out that Jesus has come save us from the sin that has plagued humanity ever since Adam and Eve. Jesus has come to do what only he can do, restore our relationship with a holy God. It is only when we come to know God better that we see how offensive our sin is to him. It is only when we come to the person of Jesus Christ that we are able to feel the warmth of his love.

Thank you

Dear friends at Walkersville, Your love expressed through a regular gift each month is amazing! How thankful I have been that God directed Paul and me to become part of your family way back in 1983!

And then this month another gift came to my mailbox, a check for $25 identified simply as "donation". God knows just when to send extra encouragement. When an unplanned for need would arise, in this case a repair/replacement of the sink in our bathroom! This unexpected extra income will go toward that expense and reminds me that God knows, and always provides. Thanks be to Him, and to you!!

In Christ,
Joyce Smith
